From The Pastor

Recovering our Baptismal Dignity

As we all know, the purpose of Lent is to prepare us interiorly for the celebration of our Lord's Passion, Death and Resurrection at Easter. The goal of the Church in this holy season is to lead us to conversion and repentance, by reordering our priorities and, if necessary, changing our values and ambitions through prayer, fasting and increased acts of mercy.

Since it is by virtue of our Baptism that we already share in the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Scripture readings for Mass all refer in one way or another to Baptism.

For example, the first reading (GN 9:8-15) reminds us of how man broke the original covenant God had forged with Adam and Eve, and how He selected Noah to renew the covenant. Noah's rescue from the flood symbolizes how we are saved through the waters of Baptism, which cleanse us from sin and unite us to Christ.

In the second reading (1 PT 3:18-22), Saint Peter explicitly shows us how the episode with Noah foreshadows the Sacrament of Baptism, and he reminds us that just as Noah and his family were saved from the waters of the flood, so we are saved through Baptism: "This prefigured baptism, which saves you now."

Finally, in the Gospel (MK 1:12-15), we are told how immediately following His Baptism, Jesus was driven by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by Satan and, having emerged successfully from that Spiritual Warfare, returned to Galilee and began preaching His Messianic mission: "This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand."

In essence, Lent is a time for all of us to recover our Baptismal dignity by imitating the example of Christ in the desert. Accompanied by the Holy Spirit, Jesus conquered his tempter through prayer, fasting and timely use of the Word of God, as we see in the temptation accounts of the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. And after 40 days in the desert He emerged, both poised and prepared to serve the people He would soon redeem.

Everyone should take advantage of one of the many opportunities for Confession during this season of Lent:

Every Tuesday:	5:15-6:15 PM In St. Anne church
Every Saturday:	11:00-11:45 AM in St. Anne church
	4:45-5:15 PM in St. Winifred church
Wednesday, March 6:	6:00-8:00 PM in St. Anne church
Holy Monday, March 25:	6:00 PM (several priests available) in St. Anne church
Holy Saturday, March 30:	11:00-11:45 AM in St. Anne church

Exploring Ancient Rome Through Art

As part of their study of Ancient Rome, students in Ms. Christ's second grade art class recently honed their graphite drawing skills. They put their knowledge of lines and shapes to the test, sketching famous examples of Roman architecture that are still standing today. Well done, second grade!

Ancient Greek Mosaics

Ms. Hurley's first grade art students learned about Ancient Greek mosaics and how they were used functionally, as well for decorative purposes. The students then created their own small mosaics using dried beans in salt dough. Students were encouraged to create different patterns and designs! Well done, first grade!
