Statues Veiled

When you entered our parish churches for Mass today I'm sure you noticed that our beautiful statues were all veiled in purple. This practice is recommended in the instructions governing the Liturgy for the Fifth Sunday of Lent: "In the dioceses of the United States the practice of covering crosses and images throughout the church may be observed."

This tradition began before the Second Vatican Council's reform of the Sacred Liturgy when on this Sunday one of the accounts of our Lord's Passion was proclaimed, thus initiating the final phase of Lent known as Passiontide. Nevertheless, the practice remains relevant even today. Why? First of all, we use the veils to alert us to the special time we're in. When we walk into the church and notice something is different, our senses are awakened and we are reminded that we should treat the final days of Lent with a heightened level of reverence and devotion.

Secondly, the covering of the images is meant to force us to turn our gaze and focus more intently on the striking words being proclaimed in the important Gospel passages selected for the end of Lent, especially the accounts of our Lord's Sacred Passion that we will hear on Palm Sunday and Good Friday.

And finally, the beauty of the images being obscured by the purple cloths is a stark reminder of what sin leads to, namely, the diminishment and death of that which is beautiful. And coming to terms with the real effects of sin, perhaps we are compelled to struggle more against it and unite ourselves with the suffering Christ, who's Good Friday struggle erased the disfiguring effects of sin and Satan.

In the end, for our statues to be covered is, in a sense, "unnatural". They need to be uncovered and their beauty rediscovered! On Easter Sunday, when we see their beauty again, we will symbolically be taught that it is only by virtue of the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ that our damaged souls are repaired and their beauty rediscovered.

"I fear nothing because of the promises of heaven"

St. Patrick | March 17

Whether you know him as the man who brought Christianity to Ireland or simply as a reason you eat corned beef and cabbage in March, St. Patrick (415 – 493) is a well-known saint around the world.

St. Patrick was born in Britain of a Romanized family. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by Irish raiders from the villa of his father, a deacon and local official, and brought into slavery in Ireland. He spent six long years there as a herdsman, during which he turned to his faith for strength. He later escaped back to Britain on a ship, where he was eventually reunited with his family. His years of captivity changed him and brought out a zeal for God and a yearning to spread the message of Jesus Christ. Despite the constant danger of martyrdom, he continued to travel throughout Ireland where he baptized and confirmed in the name of Christ.

Happy Saint Patrick's Day!

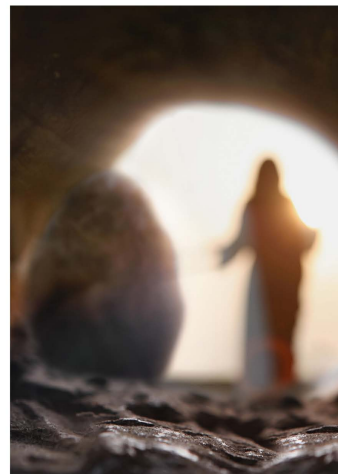

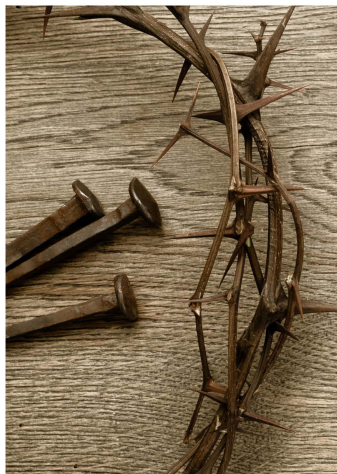

Discover the Power of Praying Before The Cross

Traveling Crucifix

Every family has the opportunity to pray before this "traveling crucifix" in your home. It is a replica of the very cross from which Jesus spoke to Saint Francis in the church at San Damiano. Worship aids with daily prayers, and thoughtful reflections, will travel with the Crucifix. Everything you need to complete this devotion as a family is there.

For more information, or to register your family to participate in this week long devotion, search "traveling crucifix" on our parish webpage, contact Don Fontana at dfontana@stpaulofthecross.com or scan this code.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

March is National Down Syndrome Month. Down Syndrome is one of several genetic conditions. It is caused by abnormal cell division resulting in extra genetic material from the 21st chromosome. This results in variations in intellectual ability, developmental delays and physical challenges. Each person with Down Syndrome has different talents and the ability to thrive, just as in the general population. Despite this, well over 80% of those diagnosed with Down Syndrome before birth are terminated in the womb. Each of us is made in God's image; each of us has special gifts and each of us has special challenges. There is no "perfect person." Please keep parents who are raising children with Down Syndrome in prayer, that they will not feel isolated but supported in our community.

- Saint Paul of the Cross Parish will take our turn on the sidewalk outside of Planned Parenthood on Saturday, March 23 from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Please contact John or Kathy Raimondi if you are able. (412) 344 - 9690
- The 40 days for life closing event, will take place Sunday, March 24th at 4:30 PM. Join his Excellency, Bishop William Waltersheid for a Eucharistic Procession from Planned Parenthood to Divine Mercy Parish, Epiphany Church. Meet in front of Planned Parenthood at 4:30 PM for a brief time of prayer with the Blessed Sacrament before processing to Epiphany Church for the closing Mass.
- GOOD FRIDAY EVENT: Come to pray the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday with Bishop Waltersheid in front of Planned Parenthood at 10:00 AM! For more information contact nbruni@40daysforlifepgh.com

St. Joseph

St. Joseph, Hero

On March 19th we celebrate the holiness in the midst of unpredictable fatherhood. We first meet Joseph when he discovers his betrothed is pregnant...and not by him! St. Joseph does not know who the father is (yet), but he knows the punishment for adultery is death. He decides to divorce Mary quietly, and thus save her life. When an angel appears to reveal that Mary is pregnant by the Holy Spirit, St. Joseph trusts his dream and marries her. As a new foster father, Joseph must help his wife give birth in a stable. Later, he needs to escape the threats to his son's life by immigrating with his family to a foreign land. We know that St. Joseph is faithful, brave, and willing to sacrifice for those he loves. On the Solemnity of St. Joseph, we don't merely celebrate a husband and father. We celebrate a hero!
