From the Pastor

There is need of only one thing.

Our Lord consoles his friend Martha and us with these words in this weekend's Gospel. How often in your day-to-day routines do you find yourself feeling like Martha? Worries, anxieties, things to be accomplished, tasks that remain out of our reach; these intrusions on our peace cause even the most grounded person to become unsettled from time to time. Martha's example, however, is a good one to learn from. It is in those moments of worry that Jesus speaks to our hearts, reminding us of His presence. In Martha's case, she expresses her love for Jesus in her hospitality. But her desire to provide for Jesus' temporal needs blinds her to what Mary is fully taking in, the Incarnate Word of God. Mary sees the invisible reality of who Jesus truly is. Martha gets stuck on loving Jesus for how He appears before her. In both cases, Jesus is nonetheless present to their needs and to their concerns! In the course of this coming week I encourage you to take a moment, slow down, and be reminded of Christ's presence in your life. Take a moment to pray, but be sure to listen to the one thing we truly need.

A great way to place your worries on Christ the Lord is through the intercession of Saint Anne. Our annual Parish Saint Anne Novena began this past Friday, July 18 and runs through this coming Saturday, July 26. A full schedule of events can be found on the seventh page of this bulletin.

Additionally, I wish to extend my deepest gratitude to everyone who made last Saturday's Installation Mass a beautiful celebration for the whole Parish. I was greatly moved by the presence of the number of people who attended. Thank you to everyone who made the day possible! I look forward serving the Lord with you as we seek to keep "the Passion of Christ always alive in our hearts."

-Fr. Joe

The Power of Saint Anne's Intercession

(An Excerpt from "Good Saint Anne", TAN Books 1998):

Almighty God privileged Saint Anne above all others in choosing her to be the mother of the Queen of Heaven. This favored saint ranks high in merit and glory, near to the Word Incarnate and to His most holy Mother. Certainly, then, Saint Anne has great power with God. Yes, assuredly the mother of the most powerful and amiable Virgin is likewise full of power and mercy.

To many saints, God has granted the power of working miracles. He told His Apostles that they would do greater things than He had done. Now surely, what He promised to His chosen followers He would not refuse to His own grandmother! Those related to Him by the ties of blood were dear to Him in life and still have great power through their intercession. There can be no question, then, that Saint Anne has great influence over her Divine Grandson and that by her intercessory power she can also work miracles in favor of her clients.

Tradition, the history of the Church and the Chronicles of various places of pilgrimage have recorded countless miracles wrought by Christ through the intercession of His sainted grandmother. Nor have they ceased to this day.

Eagle Scout Projects

Recently, two of our young parishioners completed their Eagle Scout projects to beautify the grounds of our Saint Anne campus. Nathan Disori, a member of Troop 215, restored a portion of the landscaping adjacent to the parking lot. Nathan's project consisted of assembling a flagpole, installing a bench, and adding to the retaining wall. Brice Faber, a member of Troop 228, restored an area of landscaping near the parking lot entrance. Brice's project included assembling benches, adding concrete pavers, and painting the entrance sign posts. Both Scouts did an excellent job with their respective projects, which included hours of planning, fundraising, and recruiting volunteers to assist with the work. Congratulations and thank you both for your time, hard work, and dedication. We wish you continued success as you pursue the rank of Eagle Scout!

Maghsoudi is a priest of the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown and serves as Pastor in Holy Family Parish (Hooversville, PA), Our Lady Queen of Angels Parish (Central City, PA), and All Saints Parish, (Boswell, PA). Additionally he serves as Chaplain for two state correctional institutions. A son of Latrobe and alumnus of Saint Vincent Seminary, Fr. Maghsoudi has served as a priest for almost 20 years. He brings with him a profound respect for the wealth of our Catholic traditions, ethnic heritage, and love of the saints. Please join us and Fr. Maghsoudi for this time of prayer, devotion, and celebrating the joy of our Catholic faith.

Reconciliation

During the Novena, there are many opportunities to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. A sincere Confession unites us with Jesus. This act of leaving sin behind is not easy sometimes. Remorse may bring us to tears of regret when we realize the impact of our hard-hearted actions. Mercifully, forgiveness is assured. Reconciliation is achieved because the Father still welcomes home prodigal sons and daughters. If you haven't been to Confession for a while, consider taking advantage of the many opportunities to go during this Novena week. If you're uncertain about how to properly celebrate the Sacrament, simply inform the priest that you would appreciate some guidance, and he will assist you in making a meaningful confession.

Before celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation, one should prepare with an Examination of Conscience, which involves reflecting prayerfully on one's thoughts, words, and deeds in order to identify any sins. There are various ways to examine your conscience but the one you use should be rooted in Scripture; particularly, the Ten Commandments and Beatitudes, like the ones printed below.

For Adults

I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me. Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God?

You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain. Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people?

Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day. Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday Vigil) and on Holy Days of Obligation? Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day, and proper relaxation of mind and body? Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday?

Honor your father and your mother. Do I show my parents due respect? Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible? Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

You shall not kill. Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind? Have I participated in an abortion, or encouraged someone to do so?

You shall not commit adultery. Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and myself, and been faithful in marriage?

You shall not steal. Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another?

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another?

You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse. Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

You shall not covet your neighbor's goods. Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

For Children

Saint Anne Novena

Opening Prayer

*We incorporate the following prayers into each Novena Mass.
We hope you will be able to join us daily. If not, you can recite these prayers at home.*

O Good Saint Anne, I come to you with confidence, / since you are the mother of Mary and the grandmother of Jesus. / You are powerful and kind.

You are close to me and to all of us. / You help all those who pray to you. / Your sole desire is to lead us to Jesus, / to obtain from Him all the graces we need in order to follow Him with joy and peace.

I entrust to your care all my intentions, all my needs. / Help me open my heart to the graces of the Holy Spirit.

Protect the Church, our parishes and our Church leaders. / Take care of our families and those who are sick. / We commend to you all those who are dear to us, especially our children and grandchildren.

O Good Saint Anne / through your intercession help us bear witness to Jesus by our Christian life. / May we proclaim His message of hope and love. / Amen.

Petitions to Saint Anne

When we are sick and infirm
When we are jobless and short of money
For our broken homes
For marriages in distress
For our children, our teenagers and loved ones who keep us worried
For those in our community with substance abuse problems
In our physical, emotional, moral and spiritual problems
When we work, relax, play or rest
When we struggle with temptation or give way to sin
In our desire for unity and peace
In our hopes to heal broken relationships
In our eagerness to relieve those who suffer
In our prayers for vocations
In our charitable efforts to help the souls in Purgatory
For all our intentions

Glorious Saint Anne, filled with compassion for those who invoke you / and with love for those who suffer, / burdened with the weight of my troubles / I kneel before you and humbly beg you to take the present petition I bring to you / under your maternal protection. / Ask your daughter Mary to intercede for me / and to bring my petition to the feet of Jesus / so that He may answer my request. Keep interceding for me until my request is granted.

(ask for your favors )

Above all / obtain for me the grace / of one day seeing my God face to face / and praising Him with you and Mary and all the saints, through all eternity. / Amen.

Good Saint Anne, / mother of her who is our life, our sweetness and our hope, / pray to her for us and obtain our request.

(Repeat three times)

Pray for us Saint Anne...

Who have given life to the Immaculate Mother of God.

O God, who granted Saint Anne the grace to become the mother of her who gave birth to your only Son;

grant that we, who keep her in remembrance, may obtain her protection. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Saint Anne, Bless My Family

I entrust my family to you, Good Saint Anne. / Keep a careful eye on them and guard them against all physical and spiritual danger. /

My family is where my life develops; / it is my vital setting; made up of the persons I love most in the world. / My family is the small community where I live through a succession of joys and pains. / It is,
as it were, my home church. /

I know that the model of all families must be found in the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. /
You yourself, Saint Anne, with your husband Joachim and your daughter, the Virgin Mary, gave the example of an ideal family. / Help my family be as closely united as yours and that of Jesus. / Make us love and help one another as you did. /

Saint Anne, you were a spouse, a mother and a grandmother. / Bless all the members of my family.
Keep them united and always faithful to the Lord. /

Help all Christian families become a living example of love and peace to people they meet. / May they proclaim Christ and His Gospel by word and charity.

Thanks to your intercession, / may the whole family of the children of God, the Church, remain faithful to Jesus. / Amen.
