"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho.

They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight."
- Lk 10:30b-31, 33

In your prayers please also remember to pray for Diana Neely and all the deceased members of Saint Paul of the Cross Parish.

Parish News

From the Pastor

Go and do likewise. This is the commandment the Lord gives us in this weekend's Gospel. In the example of the Good Samaritan, Jesus instructs us not only to help whenever someone is in need but, even more radically, go out and find those who are in need! We hear this command at the end of every Mass, Go forth, the Mass is ended; Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life; and so on. These are not invitations or merely a sign to dash to your car. This is a command from Jesus himself, Go and do likewise. Filled with Christ's True Presence in the Eucharist, we are sent out to bring what, more so who, we have received to those who require Him the most. We do not know who they are, where they come from, or in what sort we will find them. but Christ desires to minister to them and so should we!

Additionally this week, I wish to extend my deepest gratitude to the Parish community, staff, and various ministries and ministerial groups who have been an amazing help getting me settled in and ready to work. I also want to thank those who were able to attend the installation Mass with Bishop Zubik. Please keep Bishop Zubik and Bishop Eckman in your prayers as they both begin a new part in their episcopal ministries. Thank you to all who took part in the celebration, those who helped with the reception, and all who continue to pray for me and for our parish family. THANK YOU!

Finally, a few notes on recent and upcoming events. Recently, two Eagle Scout projects have been completed at our St. Anne campus. Stay tuned for a detailed look at what these Scouts were able to accomplish. Also, the annual St. Anne Novena is coming up on July 18 through July 26. Please find the full schedule and brief introduction to this year's guest preacher on the sixth page of this bulletin.

Prayer for Bishop Eckman
