Parish News

From the Pastor

This week, from the Gospel of St. Luke, Jesus says "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." The treasure He desires for us is faith, hope and trust in the Father who has loved us into being. This is what He came to teach His disciples and through them the faithful of His Church. However, this teaching comes with a call to action. In the verse before, Jesus says "provide moneybags for yourselves that do not wear out." We need to make room for what the Lord desires us to hold as treasure. Our work is to store up and put to good use the faith we have received. From the Letter to the Hebrews we read, "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen." Faith that is lived out without reservation is the realization of what is hoped for, eternal life in God's Kingdom!

How do we work on providing ourselves with moneybags that do not wear out and store up treasure for everlasting life? We simply have to look at our Blessed Mother! We have a special celebration this week as we commemorate her Assumption. Her moneybag? The swaddling cloth she used to keep her Son close to her heart. Her treasure? Her Son! What was the result? Heaven!

This week, as we come to Mass (TWICE!) let us leave behind those supposed treasures that pass with time, and with the help of our Blessed Mother, may we take only her Son, who is the fulfillment of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen.

Fr. Joe

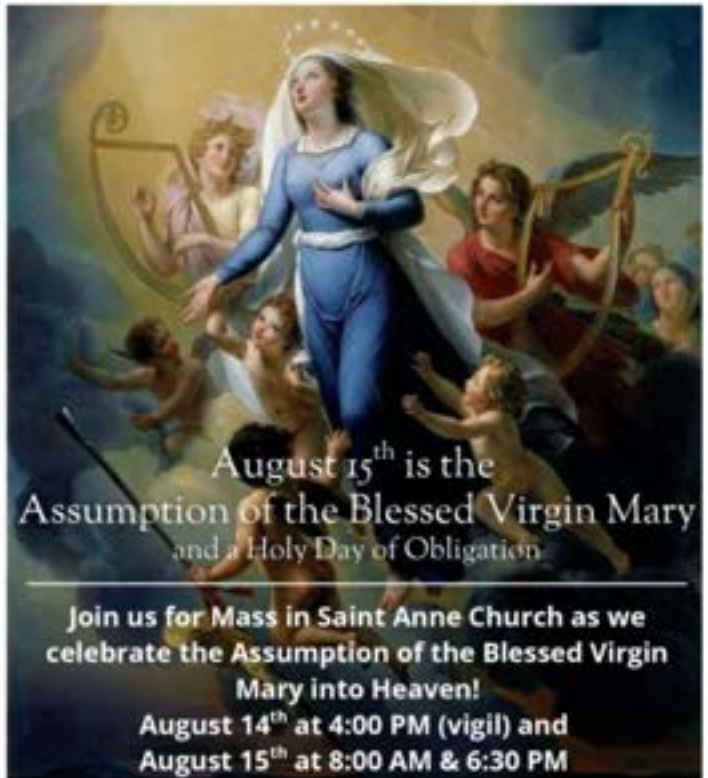

Important Notes:

Saturday Confessions in St. Winifred Church will take place after Mass upon request (instead of 4:45 PM before Mass).

The renovation of the upstairs restroom in St. Anne Church is now complete and ready for use. Thank you for your patience and please share the news with others who may need to know.
