Parish News

From the Pastor

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers.

We made it! The celebrations and liturgies have concluded, but the joy remains. The Resurrection of the Lord draws us into a newness of life in which we proclaim the Good News in word and deed. This Sunday we give thanks for the gift of our Lord's Divine Mercy. In light of the Resurrection, we now have access to the Father through the sacrifice of his Son. We acknowledge God's mercy and love for his people through the mystical experiences of St. Faustina Kowalska. For those who have been following the Divine Mercy Novena, Sr. Faustina's words reflect the ongoing work of Christ through the Church. His love and mercy sustain the members of his Body as we go out into the world.

May this Divine Mercy Sunday be a moment of rest where we take in the immense gift of Christ's sacrifice and the mercy shown to us through him. We have been saved! Now let's live that out in all aspects of our lives.

As a reminder, I will be away from the parish this week. Again, there will be no interruption to the normal liturgy schedule and the office will be operating as usual. I will not be able to take calls or emails. Messages can be left with the parish office staff.

Thank you to all those who helped make the Triduum and Easter liturgies resplendent and beautiful!

Fr. Joe

Please do not respond to these messages or click on any links or images attached to them. Fr. Joe will never solicit funds, gift cards, or personal information via text or email.

Little Sisters of the Poor 2nd Collection

The Little Sisters of the Poor and their volunteers will be with us after all masses on the weekend of April 25th and 26th to collect for their mission. Your contributions enable them to continue the work of their foundress, Saint Jeanne Jugan, in caring for the elderly poor at their Home on Benton Avenue in Brighton Heights. They are counting on your continued support.

Church collection donations can also be given online at www.littlesistersofthepoorpittsburgh.org, by scanning the QR code, or by asking a Sister or volunteer for an envelope. We remember you in our daily prayers.

Thank You For Your Generosity!

Divine Mercy Sunday Holy Hour

Thank you to everyone who has been participating in the Divine Mercy Novena since Good Friday, whether praying the chaplet in church or privately at home.

Today, we will celebrate the conclusion of the Novena with a Holy Hour scheduled for 3:00 PM - "The Hour of Mercy" - in Saint Anne Church. Please consider attending as a way to show gratitude to the Lord for all the graces He won for us through His Passion on the Cross. We hope to see you there!
