Parish News

From the Pastor

First this week, another word of thanks to everyone who took part in our annual parish Fair! Congratulations to all the raffle and prize winners. Though, I think we all won that week with great fellowship and good weather! Please take a further look in this week's bulletin for a list of the prize winners and some highlights from the Fair.

I would also like to share a big thanks to the group of volunteers who gathered last Friday to clean St. Anne Church. We are still workshopping and praying about a good name for the ministry, but I could not be more grateful for the help to keep our parish warm and welcoming! If you would be interested in helping, the group will gather next on Friday, June 26th, 1:00 p.m. in the church.

Recently I shared the progress on the search for a Pastoral Associate and a Director of Faith Formation. I have made offers for both positions. I will share with you very soon these, hopeful, new additions to the parish staff. Please keep praying!

Finally, with the guidance of the Finance Council and Diocesan support, I can now turn to searching for a new Director of Music. Please know my hope is to develop a music ministry that invites any interested parishioner to share their time and (any amount of) talent in service of the liturgical life of our parish. I am very grateful for the team of substitute organists and regular cantors for keeping us going through the summer!

- Fr. Joe

Please note that the parish office will be closed on July 3rd & July 5th for Independence Day.
