Parish News

From the Pastor

Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave... becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

These words from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians beautifully capture the depth of Christ's love for his Church. They are part of the greater hymn we hear in this weekend's second reading. This passage is also prayed regularly in the Liturgy of the Hours. I invite you with the same encouragement in Christ to utilize this passage in your prayer this week!

In other news, we have many great and exciting things happening in the coming weeks. From a new year of Faith Formation and OCIA, to our Youth Ministry, Pet Blessing and Parish Feast Day, we have many great ways to celebrate and deepen our faith in Christ and live out of baptismal calls to be good disciples! Please stay in touch through our parish bulletin, website, Flocknote and social media.

- Fr. Joe

Parish Pet Blessing

Join us next Sunday, October 4 at 1:00 PM, in front of the Saint Anne Shrine, for a pet blessing in honor of Saint Francis of Assisi. We hope to see you and your furry friends there!

Baptisms

Last weekend, Jack Immekus, child of Raymond and Maria Immekus, and Louis August Settino, child of Mason and Kelly Settino, received the Sacrament of Baptism. Please pray for Jack and Louis, their parents and Godparents. Congratulations!

Ministry Announcements

Today Is Priesthood Sunday

"The Priesthood is not a profession; it is a vocation, a way of life." - Pope Francis

Priesthood Sunday is celebrated on the last Sunday of September, a day dedicated to honoring the priesthood in the United States. This occasion invites us to reflect on and affirm the vital roles of priests, who make it possible for the Mass to be offered and the Sacraments to be celebrated. Much like Father's Day, let Priesthood Sunday serve as an opportunity to ensure our priests feel genuinely appreciated and valued.

Please take a moment to pray for our parish priests Father Joe Uzar and Father Richard Infante as well as all our visiting priests, and thank them for their tireless service, spiritual leadership and the gift of the sacraments.

You are invited to drop a personal note or a card of appreciation in the collection basket. You may also send a card to the parish office. Or thank them personally after mass.

May we all do our part to let our priests know how grateful and thankful we are for their tireless efforts. We are blessed abundantly every day by their dedication and prayers.

- Saint Paul of the Cross Vocation Council

Also, please join our Vocation Council on Thursday, October 1, and the first Thursday of every month at 5:30 PM in St. Anne Church to pray a rosary for vocations. For questions, please contact Joan Harrison at 412-877-1990 or joanharrison35@hotmail.com.

Catholic Men's Fellowship

The next meeting for the Catholic Men's Fellowship will be on October 1 at 7:00 PM in the Convent Dining Room. The fellowship's mission is to support members in becoming better husbands, leaders, and Catholics. In this fellowship, men will find opportunities for faith formation and learn ways to support their faith within their families while also serving their parish and community. If you have questions or are interested in becoming involved, please contact John Raimondi at 412-344-9690. New members are always welcome!
