FROM THE PASTOR

Standing with Christ

In today's first reading from Acts 7:55-60 we learn about the martyrdom of Saint Stephen, the first Christian to ever die in witness to the truth of Jesus Christ.

The scene takes place at the end of a long speech that Stephen had made before the Sanhedrin, Jerusalem's Supreme Court. In his discourse he summarized the entire history of salvation, explaining that Jesus was indeed the long-awaited Messiah and rebuking the Sanhedrin for rejecting Christ. In response they fly into a rage against Stephen and that's where today's passage picks up.

We are told that Stephen has the presence of mind to look up to heaven in his moment of need, and because he looks upward instead of inward is granted a vision of Jesus STANDING at the right hand of God. This is interesting, because many times the New Testament describes Jesus at God's right hand, but this is the only time He is standing. In every other instance He is seated. And so in this instance Jesus adopted an active posture and showed Stephen that He is standing with him in this moment of trial and suffering - that He is with him.

In the end, Stephen's vision didn't save him from his enemies' violent anger, nor did it rescue him from suffering. But it did renew his courage and strengthened him to stay true to Christ, the true object of his love, rather than giving into the pressure and denying what he loved.

In many ways the story of Stephen's martyrdom challenges us: that when we are faced with a trial or a suffering or some important choice, we must resist the temptation to turn in on ourselves and force ourselves to look up to Heaven and to Jesus - to recognize that Christ is standing there for us, more than willing to actively get involved in our struggle.

ORDINATION MASS

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

FROM THE SAINT ANDREW BIBLE MISSAL

Seventh Sunday of Easter

At the conclusion of the Last Supper discourse, Jesus intercedes with the Father for the unity of all believers. In him the prayer is both made and answered.

Jesus has just given his disciples the great commandment of love. Now he asks his Father for the grace of unity among all believers, the icon of his communion with God. The Lord Jesus speaks here as head of his Body, the Church, which is perfected by the unity of its faith and of its love. Born of the divine love which wills to save the world, it must become the sign of that love given to humanity. Thus is completed the circle begun by incarnation. Returning to his Father, the Word who has come into the world draws humanity with him into the communal life of God. Jesus has not only manifested the glory of God, he plunges us into it.

Science Stars

*An article from the Spring 2019 Saint Anne Gazette
by Aaron Mathias, 8th Grade*

Saint Anne students had a great showing at the state level competition of the Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science.

Nine students competed and we had seven 1st place awards and two 2nd place awards.

The state competition took place the weekend of May 19 at the Pennsylvania State University campus. Students from all over the state came and demonstrated their science experiments. In order to qualify for the state competition, they had to have received a 1st place in their regional competition. So even getting there is an honor.

Matthew Vogel, Aaron Mathias, Andrew Logan, Amy Gorscak, Lauren Campbell, Eli Smith, Michael Todd, Stephen Mescan, and Laura Kutschke all got 1st place awards and made it to state competition.

All the students from our school did great! Aaron Mathias, Andrew Logan, Amy Gorscak, Michael Todd, Stephen Mescan, and Laura Kutschke all got 1st places! Matthew Vogel and Eli Smith received 2nd place!

All the kids who competed said they would like to come back again. "It was fun!" said Matthew Vogel. The kids stayed in dorms, ordered pizza and got to watch movies.

A special thanks to Mrs. Laird, who worked so hard with all the students to get their projects together, and to Mr. and Mrs. Kutschke, who were our chaperones.

Anointing Mass

On May 15th Saint Anne School hosted the annual Anointing of the Sick Mass. Our 4th - 8th grade students were in attendance to witness this beautiful Sacrament. Following Mass our 8th grade students helped to serve lunch to those who attended.

Saint Anne School Cyclones

Recently, members of the Saint Anne Cyclone teams gathered to make 140 lunches of sandwiches, snacks and granola bars. The lunches were delivered to the Red Door downtown, which serves those in need. All the food items were donated by the students and appreciated by the staff at the Red Door. This is the second time the teams have gathered to help serve others. Well done, Cyclones!

SOCIAL MINISTRY

CARE

CARE is a program created by committed Catholics in Pittsburgh working with Casa San Jose, the community center for Latinos in our area founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph and located in Beechview. CARE works to connect parish-based volunteers with Pittsburgh residents and their families who are legally in our country awaiting asylum. These families are in need of accompaniment and emotional, social service and spiritual support when integrating into their communities or attempting to comply with immigration proceedings. Miriam Manion is organizing CARE efforts at St. Anne. We are seeking volunteers to participate in CARE at St. Anne to support immigrants from Latin America. Casa San Jose will coordinate training and orientation for volunteers from St. Anne before they are assigned a family to help. Volunteers can provide a little or a lot of time to helping families in need, depending on their availability. Our parish liaison will coordinate our volunteer schedule. Ideally, each volunteer would support one family but it is also possible that multiple volunteers would support one family based entirely on volunteer time and client family need. Please contact Miriam Manion from St. Anne for more information and to volunteer (412) 668-0190 or miriammanion@yahoo.com

VOLUNTEER CLEARANCES

Appointments are encouraged, and walk-ins are welcome. Paper forms will also be available in parish office throughout the week and on our website at www.stanneparish.com. All parish volunteers must be in compliance with safe environment regulations in order to volunteer. Please call the parish office for more information at (412) 531-5964 or email Cathy Jakubowski at cjakubowski@stanneparish.com.
