Praise the Holy Trinity

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. And unlike most liturgical feast days that observe a particular moment in God’s self-revelation, Trinity Sunday calls our attention to God Himself, His inner life, if you will.

Now, contemplating the essence of God is tricky business indeed, as the great Doctor of the Church, Saint Augustine, discovered in the latter part of the 4th century.

One day he was walking along the seashore contemplating the mystery of God and trying to understand the mystery of the Trinity. Along the way he encountered a young boy who had made a hole in the sand and was walking back and forth from the water to the hole with a seashell. When he would reach the ocean, he’d fill the shell up with water and then carry it to the hole and pour it in.

After watching this for a while Augustine asked the boy what he was doing. In reply, the boy declared that, “I’m going to empty the sea into that hole.” At the response, Saint Augustine laughed out loud and exclaimed to the boy, “My child, that’s impossible! Look how big the ocean is and how small your hole is.”

The child looked at him and responded: “And yet, it would be easier for me to do this than for you to understand the mystery of the Holy Trinity.” And with that, the boy disappeared.

In observing today’s Feast of the Most Holy Trinity the Church contemplates the mysterious truth that while we can never fully comprehend God in His essence, the Sacred Scriptures reveal that He is a relationship between three Divine Persons: the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Therefore, the doctrine of the Trinity impresses upon us that divine life can be shared, not only among the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, but also with us who are God’s adopted sons and daughters through the Sacrament of Baptism.

This belief is expressed profoundly in the Catechism of the Catholic Church which teaches: “By the grace of Baptism “in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,” we are called to share in the life of the Blessed Trinity, here on earth in the obscurity of faith, and after death in eternal light” (# 265).

Happy Father’s Day

Today we honor our fathers and pray that the Heavenly Father will bless and reward them for all they do for their families. We are also reminded that one of the greatest challenges in contemporary society is to recover the authentic meaning of Christian fatherhood, whereby a father is a sign of God the Father, whom the Bible reveals to be a faithful provider who sacrifices everything for the sake of His sons and daughters

Our New Parish's Shield

Of the many tasks that have been undertaken in recent weeks to prepare for the merger of Saint Anne and Saint Winifred parishes, an important project has been to come up with a new symbol to represent our new Saint Paul of the Cross Parish. To assist us, we retained the services of Benedictine Father Vincent Crosby, a sacred artist who runs Archabbey Studios on the grounds of Saint Vincent's in Latrobe. He is regarded as one of the foremost designers of liturgical vestments in the United States and, most famously designed Saint John Paul II's vestment for World Youth Day in 2001 and the altar linens for Pope Francis' visit to Philadelphia in 2015. One of Fr. Vincent's specialties is heraldry and after several renditions we have settled on the above Coat of Arms. A description of our new Coat of Arms is as follows:

The Shield expresses the union of the Faith Communities of Saint Anne and Saint Winifred under the patronage of Saint Paul of the Cross. The colors used in the shield represent the Theological Virtues: blue for Faith, green for Hope, and red for Charity. The emblems of the two Faith communities appear in the "chief" area of the shield. The existing symbols of Saint Anne are placed on the left and a pastoral staff on the right representing Saint Winifred's role as Abbess. The entire shield is intersected and united by a black Cross bearing three red nails, taken from the arms of the Passionist Order, founded by Saint Paul of the Cross. The Cross is shown immersed in living waters, symbolic of the waters of Baptism that unite all in Faith.
